

CENTRE FOR NARRATIVE RESEARCH
2013-2014

GRADUATE SEMINARS

The Centre for Narrative Research and NOVELLA

(ESRC Research Methods Node)

Tuesdays, 5.00 – 6.30 pm

Room: Thomas Coram Research Unit Library, NOVELLA, Institute of Education

Thomas Coram Research Unit,

27-8 Woburn Square,

London WC1H 0AA

15 October 2013

Ronan MacDubhghaill

University of Paris and University of East London

The persistence and role of memories of violence in contemporary cultural narratives in Northern Ireland

5 November 2013

Jonathan Buhagiar

University of East London

Psychiatric survivors and narratives of activism

10 December 2013

Steve Thorpe

University of East London

Entanglements of matter and meaning: how Sudanese forced migrants and Cairo make each other

14 January 2013

Tim Mason,

University of East London

Religion and clinical psychology: same but different? A narrative account

4 February 2014

Su Corcoran

Manchester University

Using narratives in Kiswahili and English to explore the experiences of reintegration of formerly street-connected children in Kenya

11 March 2014

Charlotte Morris, University of Sussex

Intimacy narratives of single mothers in the South-East of England

6 May 2014

Catherine Walker

Institute of Education

Environment as a way into exploring children's narratives of self and space: emerging analyses from fieldwork in India and the UK

17 June 2014

Mary Sutton

University of East London

Exploring narratives of refugees and Christian social activists