

CNR–TCRU Postgraduate Narrative Research Seminars, 2016-2017

Organised by the Centre for Narrative Research, University of East London and the Thomas Coram Research Unit, UCL Institute of Education

All seminars take place in the Library, Thomas Coram Research Unit, 27-28 Woburn Square
London WC1H 0AA, from 5-6.30pm.

All are welcome, particularly graduate students.

October 4 Alice Mukaka, Centre for Narrative Research, University of East London: Doing activist research: reflections from the field.

November 8 Noelle McCormack, Centre for Narrative Research, University of East London: Making memory sites: Extending opportunities for people with profound learning disabilities to participate in life story work

December 13 Susy Ridout, Birmingham University: Narrating experience: the advantage of using mixed expressive media to bring autistic voices to the fore in discourse around their support requirements

February 14 Ana de Laurentiis Brandao, Birkbeck College: Exploring drawings of a profession: a narrative inquiry of EFL teacher identity formation

March 7 Xin Guo, Thomas Coram Research Unit, UCL Institute of Education: A liberated mother, a regretting mother and a full-time mother: Chinese women's recount of their motherhood across three generations.

April 4 Yuko Otake, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine: Life goes on: meaning and ways of healing social wounds of war in northern Rwanda

May 2 Mikka Lene Pers-Højholt, King's College: Storying (others') lives in social media interaction: Hitchhiking autobiographies

June 6 Amneris Puscasu, Thomas Coram Research Institute, UCL Institute of Education:
TBA