Additional detail about the course module structure:

1. The course has a common Level 4 which it shares with the B.Sc. Business Management and the B.Sc. Human Resource Management to allow students flexibility between courses.
2. The Level 4 modules develop key skills to enable students to tackle Levels 5 and 6 with confidence and build literacy, numeracy and critical thinking skills early in the degree course.
3. The course is has “mental wealth” modules embedded at all levels to develop student cognitive intelligence, cultural intelligence and digital proficiency.
4. The course covers more macro issues in marketing theory including corporate social responsibility, brand management and strategic marketing at Level 6.

A core module for a course is a module which a student must have passed (i.e. been awarded credit) in order to achieve the relevant named award. An optional module for a course is a module selected from a range of modules available on the course.

The overall credit-rating of this course is 360-credits. If for some reason you are unable to achieve this credit you may be entitled to an intermediate award, the level of the award will depend on the amount of credit you have accumulated. You can read the University Student Policies and Regulations on the UEL website.

In order to gain an Honours degree on the B.Sc. Marketing the student will need to obtain 360-credits including:

In order to gain a Certificate of Higher Education in B.Sc. Marketing the student will need to obtain 120-credits at level four or higher.

Course Specific Regulations

The course is applying for professional accreditation from Chartered Institute of Marketing. This requires at least 50% of core modules to be in the area (or related to) marketing and for no more than 30% of the assessment to be group-based. While the course has not achieved the professional accreditation yet (but is in the process of doing so), it does exist on the current course, and these specific regulations have been embedded in the design of the course.

Typical Duration

It is possible to move from full-time to part-time study and vice-versa to accommodate any external factors such as financial constraints or domestic commitments. Many of our students make use of this flexibility and this may impact on the overall duration of their study period.

Undergraduate Courses

The expected duration of this course is 3-years full-time or 6-years part-time.

A student cannot normally continue study on a course after 4-years of study in full time mode unless exceptional circumstances apply and extenuation has been granted. The limit for completion of a course in part time mode is 7-years from first enrolment.
