Work or Study Placements

Fieldwork offers you the opportunity not only to widen your experiences, but also to reflect on your practice and the practice of others. During the degree Course there will be several opportunities to observe within fieldwork settings. There may also be the opportunity for you to undertake some of your studies abroad, and in levels five and six there is the opportunity to engage in assessed volunteer work. These volunteering and work place experiences are supported and the UEL Volunteering Hub;
<https://volunteering.uel.ac.uk/vk/volunteers/index.htm>

Course Structure

All courses are credit-rated to help you to understand the amount and level of study that is needed.

One credit is equal to 10 hours of directed study time (this includes everything you do e.g. lecture, seminar and private study).

Credits are assigned to one of 5 levels:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 3 | Equivalent in standard to GCE 'A' level and is intended to prepare students for year one of an undergraduate degree course. |
| 4 | Equivalent in standard to the first year of a full-time undergraduate degree course.  |
| 5 | Equivalent in standard to the second year of a full-time undergraduate degree course.                                       |

- 6 Equivalent in standard to the third year of a full-time undergraduate degree course.
- 7 Equivalent in standard to a Masters degree.

Courses are made up of modules that are each credit weighted.

Additional detail about the course module structure:

A core module for a course is a module which you must have passed (i.e. been awarded credit) in order to achieve the relevant named award. An optional module for a course is a module selected from a range of modules available on the course.

The overall credit-rating of this Top Up course is 240 credits if you enter at level 5 and 120 if you enter at level 6. If for some reason you are unable to achieve this credit you may be entitled to an intermediate award, the level of the award will depend on the amount of credit you have accumulated. You can read the University Student Policies and Regulations on the UEL website.

Course Specific Regulations

N/A

Typical Duration

It is possible to move from full-time to part-time study and vice-versa to accommodate any external factors such as financial constraints or domestic commitments. Many of our students make use of this flexibility and this may impact on the overall duration of their study period.

The expected duration of this course is two years full-time or three years part-time.

You cannot normally continue study on a course after 4 years of study in full time mode unless exceptional circumstances apply and extenuation has been granted. The limit for completion of a course in part-time mode is 8 years from first enrolment.

Further Information

More information about this course is available from:

- The UEL web site (www.uel.ac.uk)
- The course handbook
- Module study guides
- UEL Manual of General Regulations (available on the UEL website)
- UEL Quality Manual (available on the UEL website)
- School web pages

All UEL courses are subject to thorough course approval procedures before we allow them to commence. We also constantly monitor, review and enhance our courses by listening to student and employer views and the views of external examiners and advisors.

Additional costs:

There may be some additional travel costs when studying particular modules which require field trips, travel to placement or libraries, observations of learning in the community or volunteering. The costs here would be for the travel to and from the non-university setting. Details of these as advertised well in advance in lectures and via the Virtual Learning Environment and in the Course Handbook.

DBS may be required for which there is a cost which you must pay.
