

16 June 2020

Dear External Examiner

Further to our earlier communications, we are writing to provide you with information on our return to campus arrangements and in particular our Dual Delivery Educational Framework.

The safety and wellbeing of our students and staff is paramount in all our thinking, and underpin our new Covid-secure campus guidelines, which can be accessed via our webpages:

<https://www.uel.ac.uk/about/return-to-campus>

From September 2020, all programmes at the University of East London will be accessible in an innovative 'dual-delivery' mode. Our dual-delivery model – prepare, participate, practice – draws on evidence-based education attainment models including the flipped classroom, the station rotation and the flex model of blended learning. These changes are set out in more detail within the Dual Delivery Educational Framework, which can be accessed via our webpages – please see link above.

We hope that you will find this information useful and that it will reassure you, that we are making the necessary changes to the learning environment in order to ensure that our students thrive.

We thank you for your ongoing support to the university at this challenging time. If you require any further information, please contact gae@uel.ac.uk.

Yours faithfully

Philip Brimson
Quality Manager (Validation & Review)