ICC Early Career Researchers Training Programme

2023-2024

The Institute for Connected Communities Early Career Researcher (ECR) Training Programme is designed for postgraduate students and early career researchers. The sessions are delivered by experienced UEL researchers, covering a variety of topics relevant to researcher professional development. All ICC ECR Training Programme sessions will be delivered online (Microsoft Teams) or via hybrid delivery (details to be confirmed).

Indicative schedule Academic Year 2023-2024

| Topic | Date | Time |
|---|---|---|
| Academic writing for peer-reviewed papers | Thursday, 26 October 2023 | 2pm-4pm |
| Understanding the REF review criteria and writing REF-able outputs | Wednesday, 15 November 2023 | 11am-12.30pm |
| Developing a publications strategy and writing 3*-4* (top-rated) publications for the REF | Wednesday, 13 December 2023 | 11am-12.30pm |
| Academic writing of book chapters | Wednesday, 24 January 2024 | 11am-12.30pm |
| Introduction to the KEF, the value of KTPs and co-authoring with practitioners | Wednesday, 21 February 2024 | 2pm-3.30pm |
| Linking SDGs to research 101 | Thursday, 18 April 2024 | 11.30am-1pm |
| Negotiating research partnerships and collaborations | Wednesday, 15 May 2024 | 11am-12.30pm |
| Creating impact through research: measuring and evidencing research impact | Wednesday, 12 June 2024 | 11am-12.30pm |
| ECR Forum with HR team | Tuesday, 25 or Friday 28 June 2024 (TBC) | TBC |

Please contact us on ICC.ECRTraining@uel.ac.uk if you wish to be invited for the ICC ECR Training Programme sessions or have any questions about the programme.