About your information

GDPR Disclaimer UEL adheres to Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2018. UK GDPR states that personal data is any information that can be used to identify a living person directly or as result of combinations of data relating to or being about a person. As a participant in a research project the University has a responsibility to inform you how we are collecting, using and managing your personal data. Fully anonymised data is not governed by UK GDPR, however data that has had identifiers removed or replaced to pseudonymise the data is classed as personal data for the purposes of UK GDPR.

Further guidance on data protection can be found on the University of East London's website: <https://uel.ac.uk/about/governance/data-protection>

Should you have any concerns about the conduct of the management of your personal data please contact the Ethics, Integrity and Compliance Manager, Catherine Hitchens: researchethics@uel.ac.uk or the Data Protection Officer, Jordan Hall: dpo@uel.ac.uk
