Level 2: Reflect on and apply your learning

5 Activities

Time to reflect on what we've explored so far and apply this to your future planning!

Find your edge

The following activity has been created to help you reflect on your current strengths and interests, so you can design your perfect job in the future.

With these steps done, you'll then have a clear and authentic compass to guide you on your next steps.

You can also show your reflections and ideas to people when seeking their guidance, making it easier for them to focus their advice on your unique strengths and interests.

To get started: download the activity document below.

Design your dream Industry 5.0 job

Now let's dive deep into imagining what your future dream job might look like!

Using your reflections on what you are good at, what you love, and what the world needs, the following activity has been designed to help you to start by brainstorming your dream Industry 5.0 job.

With this, you can begin mapping out a clear and practical path for your future education and career choices. It might not be a real job yet, but this exercise can help steer you in the right direction. Let's start shaping your future...

Share your dream job with us!

Now, it's time to present your dream Industry 5.0 job to us.
