

CNR
Centre for Narrative Research, UEL

Researching Narratives and Mental Health

A day workshop organised by the Tavistock Systemic Psychotherapy Group and the Centre for Narrative Research, University of East London

Thursday March 30, 2006,

10.00-4.30

Lecture Theatre, 5th Floor, Tavistock Centre, 120 Belsize Lane, London NW3 5BA

Speakers:

Dr. David Harper, University of East London, Analysing Accounts of 'Delusions'

Dr. Mélisse Lafrance, University of Oxford, Speaking Sex: Foucault and the Case of Transsexual Embodiment

Dr. Lyndsey Moon, University of East London, From You, to Me, about Them: Framing Feeling and Constructing Emotions in Research

Dr. Nick Rose, Tavistock Centre/Oxford Family Institute, Having Schizophrenia in a Stigmatising World: The Experience of Young Men

This workshop will focus on narrative approaches to research around mental health issues. Presenters will be discussing their own methodological and theoretical dilemmas and decisions, in relation to some of their data. There will be extensive opportunities for questions and discussion

Fee (including lunch): £10

There are limited places for this event. If you would like to participate, please complete the details below and return, by February 14, with a £10 cheque made out to Tavistock and Portman NHS Trust, to:

Cigdem Esin
Research Officer, Centre for Narrative Research
University of East London
4-6 University Way
London E16 2RD

If you have further enquiries, please contact Charlotte Burck, cburck@tavi-port.nhs.uk, or Corinne Squire, c.squire@uel.ac.uk

.....
I would like to attend the 'Researching Narratives and Mental Health' workshop on March 30, 2006.

A cheque for £10 is enclosed.

Name: _____

Institutional Affiliation: _____

Email: _____